POPE FRANCIS ENCYCLICAL LETTER

LAUDATO SI'
ON THE CARE OF
OUR COMMON HOME

MESSAGE

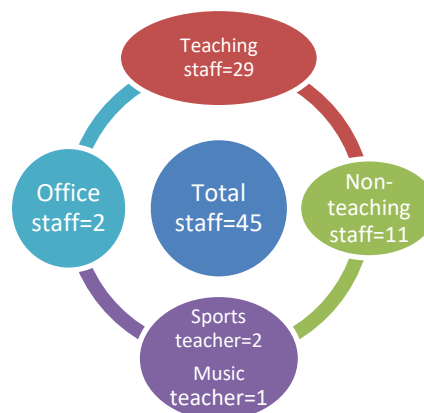

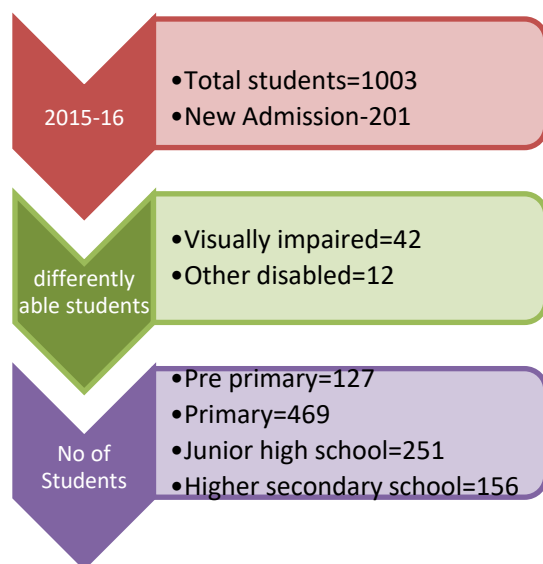

'YEAR OF ECOLOGY'

"Let us be protectors of creation, protectors of God's plants inscribed in nature, protectors of one -another and of the Environment," – POPE FRANCIS

By heading the voice of our mother Earth and by the inspiring words of our POPE FRANCIS, Our inclusive school has marked this academic year 2015-16 as the year of ecology, to nurture our Mother Earth.

'Green can be extreme, when we work as a team!'

Our mission is to improve all the steps of equity, working together to achieve excellence in wide area and imparting knowledge into practice. Our school seeks to foster and sustain a creative and supportive working environment based upon an ethos of respect. We embrace and value the diversity of our staff and students seek to promote equality to improve education worldwide.

MORNING ASSEMBLY (WORD OF GOD)

The role of morning assembly is very important for the spiritual development and for maintaining the positive environment in the school. It consist of several activities like meditation (suryanamaskar), Reading from the Holy Bible, Prayer of Fr. Bodewig, skits, poems, current affairs, quiz on subject, (etc.

They are presented by the students with the guidance of teachers.

CURRICULAR & CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

The school looks at each learner as a unique 'whole person' with special capabilities and potential(s). By providing an encouraging environment, the learners participate in several activities such as skills to enhance language, outdoor activities, speeches, quiz and skits.

CONCLUSION-

“Yes, we can.....achieve” is the motto that we have chosen for the welfare of our institute, and I think our Annual Report has shown that our students achieved a lot indeed. The J.J.H.S. School is blessed to have such a wonderful, talented and co-operative staff. So, thank s to each one of you for extending your helping hand to reach the fame of our institute to a greater distance.

Truly, God and the Immaculate Mother Mary, have been so kind and gracious to us. Without their blessings, it would be impossible to sail this ship of Jeevan Jyoti Higher Secondary School towards its destination.

THANKS!
